An Update on Falun Dafa Worldwide

VOLUME 1 ISSUE 7 FEBRUARY 20, 2006

A Story of Recovery after Loss

(Clearwisdom.net) My name is Chen Shenglu. I am 12 years old. I caused a lot of trouble for my parents because I was often sick when I was very little. On the 38th day after my birth, I was sent to the emergency room because of a high fever. In the hospital, the doctors found that my urinary system caused my urine to flow back. I was in the ICU for seven days. The doctor wanted me to take medicines for a long time and followed up on me continuously. This lasted for over one year.

Mother told me that because of the medicines I had to take, my health was not good at all. In one particular year, I used the medical card 60 times (note: one hospital or doctor office visit is one use of the medical card). As for normal flu, I got it every season. I am my parents' first son and the first grandson, and the whole family worried about my health and searched everywhere for a cure.

About six years ago, my father heard about Falun Dafa. Falun Dafa is an ancient cultivation practice based on "Truthfulness, Compassion, Forbearance" that helps one raise their moral standard and purify the body. Dad practiced Falun Dafa for a few months. Surprisingly, the old sports injuries in his back and ankle were gone without any medical treatment. So Father began to teach the whole family the Falun Gong exercises and led us to study the teachings of Falun Dafa. Since then, I said goodbye to hospitals and I am getting healthier day by day.

Doing the exercises with my sister and brother

Participating in a Falun Dafa exercise demonstration

Now, I do the Falun Gong exercises with my brother and sister every day. In school, I remind myself to meet the requirements of a practitioner. Last semester, I was elected the honor student of the class. I realize that my every word and action in school was to validate the beauty of Falun Dafa. I shall be diligent.

The feeling of no sickness is so wonderful! For six years, Falun Dafa has brought my family healthy bodies and minds and a peaceful and serene environment. To me, the recovered health can't be counted by any amount of money.

Introduction to Falun Dafa

Falun Dafa, also known as Falun Gong, is a practice for benefiting physical health and elevating the mind. The practice consists of five gentle exercises including meditation, and diligent effort on the part of practitioners to follow the universal principles of Truthfulness-Compassion-Forbearance in daily life. Falun Gong is not only beneficial to one's own health and well-being, it also benefits others. Although the practice originated in China, today it is practiced throughout the world by people of all races and walks of life. In the face of the most brutal and vicious persecution perpetrated on them by the Chinese Communist Party, Falun Gong practitioners have found the spiritual strength to resist peacefully and tirelessly by upholding the principles of Truthfulness-Compassion-Forbearance.

Ongoing Persecution of Disabled Practitioner Wang Xinchun

(Clearwisdom.net) The police in Fenggou County, Fengmao Forest, Yichun City, Heilongjiang Province have never stopped persecuting Falun Dafa practitioner Mr. Wang Xinchun, even though they caused him to be disabled in 2001. At the end of 2005, the police further injured his already disabled legs.

Police abuse and terrorism led Mr. Wang Xinchun to lose his legs

Wang Xinchun lost both feet due to persecution by the 610 Office (an agency set up to persecute Falun Gong), the police and the Public Security Bureau. Nevertheless, police and local officials in Fengmao Forest continue to persecute Mr. Wang. They have repeatedly kicked and beaten him, poured boiling water on him, pinched his neck, and burned him with a cigarette lighter. Liu Changmin, deputy manager of Fengmao Forest, violently beat the stumps where his feet used to be, causing him serious injury again.

At around 9:00 a.m. on October 31, 2005, Mr. Wang was crawling on the road, on his way home. A police car from the Fenggou Police Station suddenly appeared. Chief Min Caichun, Police officers Wang Choumin, and Yang Dawei jumped out of the car and ran towards Mr. Wang. Wang Choumin searched the pockets of Wang Xinchun's coat and found handwritten Falun Dafa materials, so he began to beat him. Mr. Wang Xinchun's face was swollen and was full of bruises. Another policeman, Yang Dawei, searched the right pocket of Mr. Wang's pants and stole his watch and all of his money. Mr. Wang Xinchun asked Yang to return his money and his watch and, as a result, was cursed at and beaten. Once again, blood flowed from his two injured, disabled legs.

Internet Giants Grilled on China Policies

The giants of the Internet industry were put on the defensive on Wednesday February 15, when US lawmakers compared their compliance to Chinese censorship laws with the use of IBM's technology in the organization of the Holocaust.

Yahoo, Google, Microsoft and Cisco later responded to stinging criticism of their business practices – including accusations that they have "enthusiastically volunteered for China's censorship brigade" – saying the issue was too big for the companies to tackle on their own and that the US government needed to take a leadership role.

"Your abhorrent activities in China are a disgrace. I simply do not understand how your corporate leadership sleeps at night," California Representative Tom Lantos said.

Dana Rohrabacher, a Republican legislator, emphasized the Chinese government's persecution of minorities in China, and introduced Peter Yuan Li, a Chinese-born American who was beaten in his home in Georgia this month. In a Financial Times interview, the Falun Gong practitioner described being subjected to a ferocious beating at his home by Chinese and Korean speaking men who stole two laptops and his home telephone. Hong Kong: Practitioner Attacked on Busy Street

(Clearwisdom.net) Falun Gong practitioner Kuang Senqia was assaulted around 4:00 p.m. on February 12, on a busy street in Wangjiao. He was publicly appealing for help to rescue his wife who is being unlawfully held in mainland China because she practices Falun Gong.

In addition to beating up the practitioner, the perpetrator damaged the informational materials that Mr. Kuang had with him.
